

“TAX TIPS FROM TAXBRAINIA X”

Many Tax-Exempt Organizations Must File with IRS by May 15 to Preserve Tax-Exempt Status.

With the May 15 filing deadline facing many tax-exempt organizations, the IRS today cautioned these groups not to include any unneeded personal information on their Form 990 and consider taking advantage of the speed and convenience of e-filing. Call @TaxBrainiaX at 888-764-2805 to e-file your return.

- By law, organizations that fail to file annual reports for three consecutive years will see their federal tax exemptions automatically revoked as of the due date of the third required filing.
- The IRS generally does not ask organizations for SSN's and in the form instructions cautions filers not to provide them on the form.
- Small tax-exempt organizations with average annual receipts of $50,000 or less may file an electronic notice called a Form 990-N (e-Postcard).
