

“TAX TIPS FROM TAXBRAINIA X”

Tax Help in the Event of a Disaster

June 1 marks the start of hurricane season. When a hurricane or other disaster strikes, TaxBrainiaX wants you to know you can count on us for help. We can help you prepare for, and recover from, the destruction it causes. Here are some of the key disaster-related help and assistance you can get from the IRS with the assistance of TaxBrainiaX.

- Make a plan. Refer back to Tuesday’s Tips on preparing for a disaster. It will help you with planning before a disaster hits.
- Federally declared disasters. Special tax law provisions apply when the federal government declares a major disaster area. These rules can help victims recover financially after a disaster. For instance, the IRS may grant more time to file tax returns and pay tax.
- Faster refunds possible. You may be able to get a faster refund from losses suffered in a federally declared disaster area. You can claim losses related to the disaster on the tax return for the previous year. You make the claim by filing an amended return in most cases.

If you did not file your 2014 tax return, or file an extension for 2014, pick up the phone and call TaxBrainiaX today at 888.764.2805 for a free consultative phone call on how to handle unfiled taxes.
